

I THINK/WE THINK

Directions:

Answer the following question on your own in the “I Think” column:

How does the author’s use of perspective help you understand the character?

Find a partner who chose the character opposite you. Discuss the question together and provide one answer that encompasses both character perspectives in the “We Think” column.

| I Think | We Think |
|---------|----------|
|         |          |