

LEVELS OF ORGANIZATION RUBRIC

	Exceeds	Meets	Approaching	Needs Improvement	No Marks	Points Awarded
Definition	The definition was clear, concise, appropriate, and written in the student's own words.	The definition was clear, concise, appropriate, and written mostly in the student's own words.	The definition was somewhat clear and written mostly in the student's own words.	The definition was unclear or not written at all in the student's own words.	Incomplete/ Missing	_____
Accuracy	Provided information above and beyond what was required, and all facts reported about the topic were accurate.	Provided all required information, and all facts reported about the topic were accurate.	Facts were accurate for at least 80% of the information reported about the topic.	Facts were accurate for at least 60% of the information reported about the topic.	Incomplete/ Missing	_____
Visual Representation	The presentation included a balance of both models/images and text. The text was an appropriate size and formatted correctly.	The presentation included both models/images and text, but it relied more heavily on one over the other. The text was an appropriate size and formatted correctly.	The presentation included both models/images and text, but the text was either not appropriately sized or not formatted correctly.	The presentation included few or no models/images, and the text was either not appropriately sized or not formatted correctly.	Incomplete/ Missing	_____
Resources & Levels of Organization	The presentation included all levels of organization and citations for all information included.	The presentation included 3–4 levels of organization with citations.	The presentation included 1 or more levels of organization, but they were either not relevant or did not include citations.	The presentation did not include any levels of organization or citations related to the topic.	Incomplete/ Missing	_____

Total Points _____