

3-2-1 EXAMPLE RESPONSE

3	List three things from the reading or Ten Point Program that stood out to you and explain why they made an impression on you. - The Black Panther Party was founded with the purpose of offering protection to African Americans from unlawful arrests and intimidation from the police. This stood out to me because the conversation of unlawful arrests and intimidation is still going on today. - The Panthers created free breakfast programs and health clinics in their communities to address some of the disparities they were facing. This stood out to me because it was interesting to see how the Party worked to address issues in their own communities. - Point number 10: We want land, bread, housing, education, clothing, justice, and peace. This stood out to me because they are all requests/resources that individuals should have access to in an equal and just society.
2	Choose two points from the Ten Point Program still relevant issues today and explain why you chose those points. - Point number 4: We want decent housing, fit for shelter of human beings. I believe this is still a relevant issue as we see many disparities in urban communities in comparisons to surrounding communities. - Point number 5: We want education for our people that exposes the true nature of this decadent American society. I believe this is still a relevant issue, and many times we are not taught the several sides of History and many stories are overlooked.
1	Give one example from the reading or Ten Point Program about how the Black Panther Party advocated for social justice in their communities. - The Black Panther Party advocated for social justice in their communities by creating programs such as health clinics to help provide for equal opportunities/access within their communities.
