

HOW I KNOW IT

Directions

Inside the circle, write all the information you know about how natural selection contributes to the expansion of some species and the decline of others. Outside the circle, draw a line from each point and explain how you know that information: Which source(s) did you learn it from?

