

Dear You,

I am so tired of how you treat me. You do so many things that make me angry...no cap. You don't even care about me. I wanted to tell you how I felt, but you wouldn't even listen. Why are we even together? I want to break up. You are total dogwater. I don't like how you tell your friends my business. We are through. Don't try to add me back on Snap either!

Signed,

Me
