

H.I.P.P.

You will need your copy of the Declaration of Independence to help you with this work. Using the HIPP acronym as your guide answer the following questions in complete sentences. You can use the back of the paper if you need more room.

1. H is for historical context: What events are occurring at the time of the document's creation?
2. I is for intended audience: Whom is the author addressing in the document?
3. P is for point of view: What is the author's perspective? What role in society does the author have?
4. P is for purpose: What is the author(s) trying to accomplish with the document?
