

Art Rubric

Criteria	Needs Work-1	Satisfactory-3	Advanced-5
Clear Message	The message of this poster is not clear.	The poster expresses several messages but the freedom or right is not clear.	The poster expresses a clear message about an American freedom or right.
Emphasis	There is no emphasis, and therefore, the poster is confusing with no clear message.	The artist uses design elements to emphasize more than one part of the poster.	The artist uses design to emphasize one part of the poster.
Overlapping	There is little overlapping, creating a lack of unity in design and message.	The artist uses some overlapping, but a few items are left out in their own space.	The artist uses overlapping to provide a sense of unity throughout the poster.
Example from Bill of Rights	The artist's representation of one of the Bill of Rights is vague and not easily identifiable.	The art represents one of the amendments from the Bill of Rights, but it is not clearly understood what the artist's stance is.	The art represents clearly the artist's stance regarding one of the amendments from the Bill of Rights.