

Making A Political Map Presentation

Teacher Name: _____ Group Members: _____

Category	4	3	2	1
Map of Country	Country is labeled with capital and one major city and at least one major water feature. The map is neat and easy to read.	Country is labeled with capital and one major city and at least one major water feature. The map is somewhat neat but not as easy to read.	Country is missing one of the major features: - the capital, a major city, or a water resource.	The group has no labeled map, or the map is incomplete.
Capital of Country	The group shares three facts about the capital of their country.	The group shares two facts about the capital of their country.	The group shares one fact about the capital of their country.	The capital information is missing from the presentation.
Water Feature	The presentation describes at least one or more water features in great detail and their location.	The presentation describes one water feature of the country in detail and its location in the country.	The presentation describes the water feature but not the location.	The presentation lacks any water sources.
Major City	The presentation identifies at least one or more major cities and the locations on the map.	The presentation includes one major city and its location.	The presentation includes one major city but its location is unclear.	The presentation does not include a major city.
Country Facts	Presentation describes five facts about the country. Facts are unique and interesting.	The presentation describes at least four facts about the country.	The presentation describes three facts about the country.	The presentation does not mention specific facts about the country.