

EDPUZZLE QUESTIONS: THE FOUR ROTTEN CHILDREN

1. Augustus Gloop is listing all of these candy ingredients he is familiar with. What can you infer about him? (00:22)
2. What does Augustus's reaction to winning the golden ticket tell you about him? (00:41)
3. Take note of the details of the setting here: the cameramen, flash bulbs, interview questions, etc. How does Veruca Salt react to this overwhelming scene? What characteristics does her reaction reveal? (1:01)
4. "My little Veruca got more and more upset each day," says Veruca's father. When Veruca is "upset," what characteristics does she display? (1:42)
5. At the end of this karate scene, Violet Beauregarde walks away from her competition and blows a gum bubble. No words are spoken. How would you describe her personality in this wordless scene? Are these characteristics revealed through direct or indirect characterization? (2:40)
6. "She's just a driven young woman," says Violet's mother. Is this direct or indirect characterization? (3:00)